The top Chinese Communist organization in Yushu (N 33-01, E 96-52) in late 1951 was the Local Working Committee of the Yushu Area Communist Party. The chairman of this committee was the commissioner of the Yushu area, CHI Chung-kuang (0370/6850/0342)². The Local Working Committee was divided into the following four main sections:

- a. The Military Section, concerned with the political affairs of the Chinese military forces in the area. This section was headed by SUN Kung (1327/7255), in command of the Yushu Military Sub-District. SUN, about 35 years of age, a native of Wuch'ang (N 30-32, E 114-47), Hupeh Province, is a man of marked ability and reportedly does not favor the pro-Soviet tendencies of Communist China. He is a graduate of a senior middle school.
- b. The Political Section, in charge of organizing Communist political groups among the civilian population. This section was headed by CHI Chung-kuang, the commissioner of the Yushu area. CHI, a native of Shansi Province and a graduate of the military academy established by the military governor of Shansi, was formerly employed by the Kuomintang Government. He is about 45 years old and is not considered a man of ability, since he lacks vitality and tends to be bureaucratic in his approach to problems.
- c. The Party Affairs Section, concerned with organizational matters. This section is headed by HSING Min (0438/2404), a native of Shansi Province and about 32 years old. He served as the political officer of a regiment in the 8th Route Army. HSING is not considered a capable man.
- d. The Intelligence Section, headed by CHAO Tzu-hsiu (6392/5261/4423), the director of the Public Security Department of the Yushu area. CHAO, who is about 55 years old, formerly worked under the veteran North China
